SHAPE
Saving Humanity and Planet Earth

warmly invites you and friends to a critically important event

Struggles for a Just Multipolar World:
Obstacles and opportunities leading thinkers in conversation

Mohammad-javad Zarif
Associate Professor, Tehran University; Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran from 2013 to 2021; Permanent Representative of Iran to the United Nations from 2002 to 2007; served on the UN Eminent Persons Group on Dialogue Among Civilizations; Head of the UN Disarmament Commission in New York, and Vice President for International Affairs of the Islamic Azad University.

Wang Huiyao
Founder and President of Center for China and Globalization (CCG); former Counsellor to China State Council (China's cabinet); a global thought leader on China and globalization, global governance, international trade and investment, China's international relations and China-U.S. trade relations, with more than 100 publications in both Chinese and English.

Victoria Panova
Vice Rector, HSE University, Moscow; previously Provost for International Relations of the Far Eastern Federal University (FEFU); Scientific Supervisor of the BRICS Expert Council for the year of Russia's BRICS Chairmanship and Managing Director of the National Committee of BRICS Research; expert of the Russian International Affairs Council.

Phyllis Bennis
American writer, activist, and political commentator; director of the New Internationalism Project at IPS, focusing on the Middle East, US militarism, and UN affairs; writes and speaks widely across the US and internationally; frequently contributes to US and global media; author of numerous articles and books, notably on the Middle East and US foreign policy.

An online event moderated by Prof Joseph Camilleri

Opening remarks by Dr Chandra Muzaffar, and closing comments by Prof Richard Falk

Sunday
29 October
2023

LA 6.00 am New York 9:00 am London 1:00 pm
Paris / Berlin 2.00 pm Johannesburg 3.00 pm
Moscow / Cairo / Istanbul 4:00 pm New Delhi 6:30 pm
Beijing / KL 9.00 pm Tokyo 10.00 pm Melbourne Midnight

REGISTRATION ESSENTIAL HERE